

The Crime & Society Review

Volume-I ; Issue-I ; October-December/2026

Rethinking Crime, Justice & Society: Emerging Perspectives for the 21st Century

Priority Editorial Tracks for Vol-I ; Issue-I ; October-December/2026 (Inaugural Issue)

1. Emerging Trends and Contemporary Perspectives in Criminology

Crime and Criminality, Contemporary Criminological Theory, Emerging Crimes, Criminal Behaviour, Victimology, Crime Prevention and Control, Organised and Transnational Crime, White-Collar and Corporate Crime, Cyber Criminology, AI-Enabled Crime, Cybercrime and Digital Exploitation, Deepfake and Synthetic Media Crime, Dark-Web Criminality, Cryptocurrency and Financial Crime, Technology-Facilitated Sexual Crime, Terrorism and Violent Extremism, Environmental and Wildlife Crime, Gender-Based Violence, Crimes Against Children, Predictive and Future Criminology, Global Crime Trends.

2. Criminal Justice, Law, Policing and Institutional Responses

Criminal Law and Legal Reform, Criminal Justice Systems, Policing and Law Enforcement, Police Accountability, Investigative Practices, Community and Intelligence-Led Policing, Smart Policing, Criminal Justice Administration, Corrections and Prisons, Courts and Judicial Processes, Access to Justice, Victim-Centred Justice, Institutional Governance and Reform

3. Forensic Science, Technology and the Transformation of Justice

Forensic Science, Forensic Investigation, Digital and Cyber Forensics, Artificial Intelligence in Justice, Machine Learning and Crime Analytics, Digital Evidence, DNA and Biological Forensics, Fingerprint and Trace Evidence, Biometrics, Surveillance and Security Technologies, Blockchain and Evidence Integrity, Technology-Enabled Investigation, Data-Driven Policing, Emerging Forensic Technologies

4. Crime, Society, Victimisation and Social Justice

Crime and Society, Sociology of Crime, Victimisation and Victim Experiences, Gender and Crime, Children and Youth, Vulnerability and Marginalisation, Inequality and Crime, Social Control, Community Safety, Crime and Culture, Media and Crime, Criminal Psychology, Behavioural Dimensions of Crime, Human Rights and Justice, Victim Support and Rehabilitation

5. Innovative, Interdisciplinary and Critical Approaches to Crime and Justice

Critical Criminology, Interdisciplinary Crime Research, Comparative Crime Studies, Criminological Policy Analysis, Conceptual and Theoretical Scholarship, Systematic and Scoping Reviews, Methodological Innovations, Empirical and Mixed-Methods Research, Case-Based Inquiry, Evidence-Informed Criminal Justice, Psychology and Crime, Sociology and Crime, Law and Criminology, Technology and Society, Public Policy and Justice

6. International Crime, Diplomacy, Geopolitics and Transnational Security

M Transnational Organised Crime, Cross-Border Criminality, Terrorism and Violent Extremism, Human Trafficking and Migrant Smuggling, Transnational Cybercrime, Money Laundering and Illicit Financial Flows, Drug and Arms Trafficking, Maritime and Border Crime, Crime and Foreign Policy, Crime and Geopolitical Conflict, International Criminal Justice, International Law Enforcement Cooperation, Extradition and Mutual Legal Assistance, Intelligence Sharing, Sanctions and Illicit Networks, Global Crime Governance and Emerging Security Threats